

Table of Contents

Chapter 1

Welcome to Selling Cruises, Don't Miss the Boat!

An introduction to the book with comments by James G. Godsmen, President of CLIA. Introduction to Selling Cruises, Don't Miss the Boat.

Chapter 2

The Cruise Industry, Unlimited Opportunity

Growth in the cruise industry and the opportunity it presents. Cruise Itineraries, Unlimited Growth, Cruise Commissions, Large and Generous, The Cruise Industry, an Entrepreneur's Dream

Chapter 3

The Cruise Vacation

Cruises vs. resort based vacations. The on-board experience; entertainment, dining, ports of call, at sea, gambling, relaxation, and activities. Overall satisfaction. Cost comparison cruises vs. land based vacations.

Chapter 4

Types of Cruises

Different sizes of ships. Different types of cruise experiences. Cruise commissions, overrides and group rates. Cruise destinations.

Selling Cruises,
Don't Miss the
Boat

Chapter 5 The Cruise Fleet, The Major Cruise Lines

The major cruise lines identified. A look at their growth rate and Ships on Order. The mass market.

Chapter 6 The Cruise Fleet, The Luxury Cruises

The luxury cruise lines identified. Luxury cruise line per diems, The Luxury Market.

Chapter 7 The Cruise Fleet, Specialty Cruises

Niche cruise lines. The sailing cruise fleet. International specialty cruise lines. Riverboats and barges.

Chapter 8 Starting Your Cruise Oriented Travel Business

Obtaining proper licenses. Selecting a host agency, Choosing your business structure. Storefront or home-based? Your professional image.

Chapter 9 CLIA, The Cruise Line International Association

Thorough information about CLIA. Thorough information about videos and training classes. Thorough information about CLIA's "Cruise Counselor" certification programs.

Chapter 10 Establishing Your Agency Relationship

Travel agent identification numbering systems; ARC; ARC's VTC Program; IATAN; TravelSellers.com; TRUE; TRIP; Psuedo ARC Numbers; Summary

Chapter 11 Developing Your Client Files 59

The Cruise Vacation Questionnaire; Example of a Cruise Vacation Questionnaire; The Cruise Passenger Profile Form; Example of a Cruise Passenger Profile Form.

Chapter 12 Developing Your Supplier and Destination Files

Need for supplier files, How to get information for your files. How to organize your supplier files. Cruise line files. Destination Files.

Chapter 13

Developing Your Personal Product Files

Why you need personal product files. Contents. How to use them.

Chapter 14

How to Read and Sell From a Cruise Brochure

Reading the brochure as a cruise client would. Reading it as a cruise seller. Using the brochure as a sales tool.

Chapter 15

The Cruise Reservation File

Description of reservation file. Example of a Cruise Reservation Form. The cruise reservation process from A to Z.

Chapter 16

Selling a Cruise Vacation

Consummating the sale using the various forms and skills.

Chapter 17

Maintaining Your Client Base

What is a client? Initial contact and follow up. Reservation Confirmation Letter (sample) Cruise Document Letter and Document Check List (Sample)

Chapter 18

Making a Cruise Reservation

Preparing for the reservation call. Sample dialog of making a cruise reservation call. After the reservation call has been made.

Chapter 19

Automating Your Cruise Operation

The CRS/GDS and reservations systems. Your home computer. Software.

Chapter 20

Developing Your Client Base

Developing your client mailing list. Prospecting for new clients. Using direct mail. Managing your list. Relationship marketing with contact management program.

Chapter 21

Cruise Newsletters

How to develop effective cruise newsletters. Post card newsletters. Mini newsletters. Specialized newsletters. Sample cruise newsletter

TOC-3

Table
of Contents

Selling Cruises,
Don't Miss the
Boat

Chapter 22 Advertising Cruises

Newspapers, secondary publications, magazines, Yellow Pages. Co-op ads.

Chapter 23 Cruise Promotions

Cruise days, nights or weeks. Special events. Travel shows. Bridal shows. Speaking cruises. Community networking.

Chapter 24 Cruise Marketing Techniques for the 21st Century

Notebook computers for mobility. Cruise videos. On-line forums and bulletin boards. The Internet. Your web site. Networking. Voice mail. Fax on demand. Marketing via fax and e-mail.

Chapter 25 Developing Cruise Groups

The group market defined. How to negotiate, cost, and operate group cruises. Promoting and marketing group cruises.

Chapter 26 Developing Your Cruise Sales

Recruiting quality employees. Building an outside sales force to sell cruises. Sample independent contractor agreement.

Chapter 27 Working With Your Suppliers

Developing a good working relationship with suppliers. Local reps and DSMs. Preferred suppliers, consortiums. Trade shows and seminars. How to negotiate.

Chapter 28 The Benefits of Selling Cruises

The cruise benefits. Potential tax benefits

Chapter 29 Cruise Lines, Trade Publications, & Other Contacts

Cruise Line contacts. Travel video suppliers. Consumer Cruise Magazines and Travel Trade publications, Important Cruise Websites

Chapter 30 Nautical Terms and Phrases

Nautical terms and phrases that you should understand and know.